Shawnee Hills Ass'n Asks Good Road Through Garden of Gods Area

Resolution Asks State, Federal Help for Project

The Shawnee Hills Recreation Association last night passed a resolution requesting the co-operation of the federal and state governments in obtaining a good road through the scenic Garden of Gods area.

George Aydelott, who brought up the proposition, suggested that a road could be built from Route 34 to the south to Route 142 at Equality. This would pass through parts of Pope, Saline and Gallatin counties.

"The Garden of the Gods is one of the most beautiful scenic spots we have, yet it is one of the most inaccessible," Mr. Aydelott stated.

He said that besides providing a road for tourists to see some of the prettiest scenery, such a road also would afford farmers a fine farm-to-market road and possibly could open up development of coal beds in the general area.

Folk Festivals Proposed
The plan was to send copies of the resolution to Rep. Kenneth Gray of this district; to Rep. Collier of the Tenth Illinois district who has shown an interest in this area; and to the state representatives from the area.

Rex Karnes of the Area Services Division of Southern Illinois told the gathering, which held its March meeting in the Elks dining room in Harrisburg, of efforts being made at SIU to co-operate with the SHRA in the possible staging of pageants and folk festivals in the scenic area to help promote tourist trade.

He pointed out that they would have to be on a level that would attract people for miles as well as local persons.

Mr. Karnes told of a trip he and William Farley of Harrisburg made to East St. Louis to show the parents of Girl Scouts just what could be seen in southern Illinois. For the past two years hundreds of Girl Scouts from East St. Louis have visited the area by bus.

Need Volunteer Help
He said the two showed films and color slides of the area and spoke from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., getting their message to about 1,400 people.

"I believe we did some good," Mr. Karnes stated. "Now the Boy Scouts from the area are going to come, too. If they do we're going to need some help from others as things right now are pretty well tied up in taking over tours for Girl Scouts on five successive week-ends."

From all indications, there would be volunteer help from the organization in helping with Boy Scout tours.

Seek $20,000 Damages for Boy's Injuries

Damages of $20,000 are sought from operators of three Gallatin county taverns as a result of injuries received by young Robert Eugene Taylor of Harrisburg last June.

Young Taylor and others were injured and three were killed last June 27 when cars driven by Marion Lasseter of Harrisburg and Earl Brown of Eldorado collided on Route 45 between Harrisburg and Eldorado. Lasseter was one of those killed.

The complaint was filed for the lad, 13 years old, when the accident occurred, by Norman Taylor, his father and guardian. Representing Mr. Taylor are Atty. Jack C. Morris of Eldorado and Atty. Ralph W. Harris of Marion.

Named defendants are Joe Gene and Madge Gene, described as owners and operators of Gene's tavern at Old Shawneetown at the time of the crash; Robert L. Logsdon, described as owner and operator of Logsdon's tavern in Old Shawneetown; and Dale Kane and Beulah Gossett, described as owners and operators of the Broadway Inn in Shawneetown.

The complaint asks for the judgment under the provisions of the Illinois Dram Shop Act. It charges that on June 27, 1957, Brown secured liquor at the places of the defendants and became intoxicated. It charges that Brown drove over the center line onto the south half of the highway in which the Lasseter vehicle was travelling and that a head-on crash resulted.

The complaint says Taylor sustained a fractured skull, chest and head injuries, a fractured left arm and a compound comminuted fracture of the left femur.

Any other improvement possibilities also will be discussed. All interested parties are invited to attend.

President Pledges Necessary Action To Help U. S. Economy

Mother, Divorced After Baby Son Kidnaped, Reweds

NEWTON, Iowa (AP) — Mrs. Marilyn Damman, who charged that her former husband accused her of "carelessness" when their son was kidnaped two years ago, has remarried.

Mrs. Damman, 24, married Ted Haney of Newton at Omaha last Saturday, her mother, Mrs. Clyde Wilson, disclosed today.

Steven Damman, 3, was kidnaped outside an East Meadow, N. Y., supermarket on Oct. 31, 1955. The child was never found, and, last Dec. 31, Mrs. Damman obtained a divorce from her husband, Gerald, 27.

Mrs. Damman charged that her husband had turned against her after Steven's disappearance. He denied her charge.

In the divorce action, Mrs. Damman was granted custody of their daughter, Pamela Sue, 3.

House to Act on Year Freeze on Price Supports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional approval seemed assured today for a one-year freeze on farm price supports and acreage limits. But many members believed the stop-gap legislation, despite a crucial amendment to make it more palatable to the administration, would be vetoed by President Eisenhower.

The object of the legislation is to block scheduled cuts in farm price supports this year and anticipated further reductions in planting allotments next year.

The Senate, by a 50-43 vote, already has approved legislation to impose a freeze of this kind indefinitely. The House Agriculture Committee approved the Senate bill 25 to 8 Monday with an amendment to bar support cuts this year and to prohibit acreage allotments expected to be announced this year for next year's crops.

Informed congressional sources predicted today the House will buy this by a fairly good margin, possibly late this week. The Senate, these sources indicated, probably will go along with the one-year limitation.

The first of a series of scheduled cuts in price supports — on dairy products — goes into effect on April 1. Congressional leaders expect to put the bill on the President's desk in time to head off this cut in the event he decides to sign the measure.

Slaters' Cecil Simpson No. 1, NE SW NW, 30-8s-6e, was shut down awaiting tank space while on flow testing the Aux Vases line.

Air Force Admits B47 in Area

SHEBOYGAN, Wis. (AP) — Air Force authorities today admitted a B47 might have been in the area when two nearby communities were peppered with 20 millimeter cannon shells which hit three homes.

Lt. Billy Baxter, information officer at Lockbourne Air Force Base at Columbus, Ohio, said a B47 from Lockbourne "probably might have been in that area" Monday night when the outburst occurred.

However, he added it would be a "big assumption to say it was the culprit." Officials said the plane was on a "routine training mission."

U.S. to Announce Plans Soon for Rocket to Moon

Believe Russia Halts Launchings in Complacency Hopes

WASHINGTON (AP) — High defense officials said the United States, now that it has two satellites spinning around the globe, may announce plans to send a rocket to the moon "soon."

Meanwhile a high-ranking scientist said Russia may have halted its satellite launchings in hopes of lulling Americans into complacency in the space race.

Another "guess" as to why the Kremlin has sent no satellite aloft since Nov. 3 is that Moscow may be seeking to spring a major triumph by shooting a man into space and bringing him back safely to earth.

The grapefruit-sized Vanguard I, second made-in-U.S.A. moon, girdled the globe in a lofty orbit running from about 407 miles to some 2,513 miles above the earth.

Because of its height—far above Sputniks I and II and Explorer I—scientists predicted a life for it of possibly as much as 20 years or more.

Dr. John P. Hagen, head of the Navy's Project Vanguard which after many setbacks fired the radio-equipped satellite into space Monday, said its solar-powered radio, one of two aboard, will probably continue to transmit signals "indefinitely"—as long as its stays aloft.

Hagen said the next Vanguard test will be an effort to put a fully-instrumented 20-inch satellite into orbit. He declined to say when but indicated it would be within the next two or three weeks. A second Army Explorer is slated to be fired next week.

Hagen said Monday's firing indicates the upper stages of the three-stage Vanguard could be added to "any powerful booster" and shot to or around the moon. Both the Army and Air Force have missiles they are plugging for the initial phase of the moon shot.

An Air Force spokesman, asked if the Air Force feels "out in the cold" now that the Army and Navy have satellites circling the earth, said the Air Force confidently expects to put the first man in space.

Kiwanians Change Plans; Will Visit Vienna Club Thursday Night

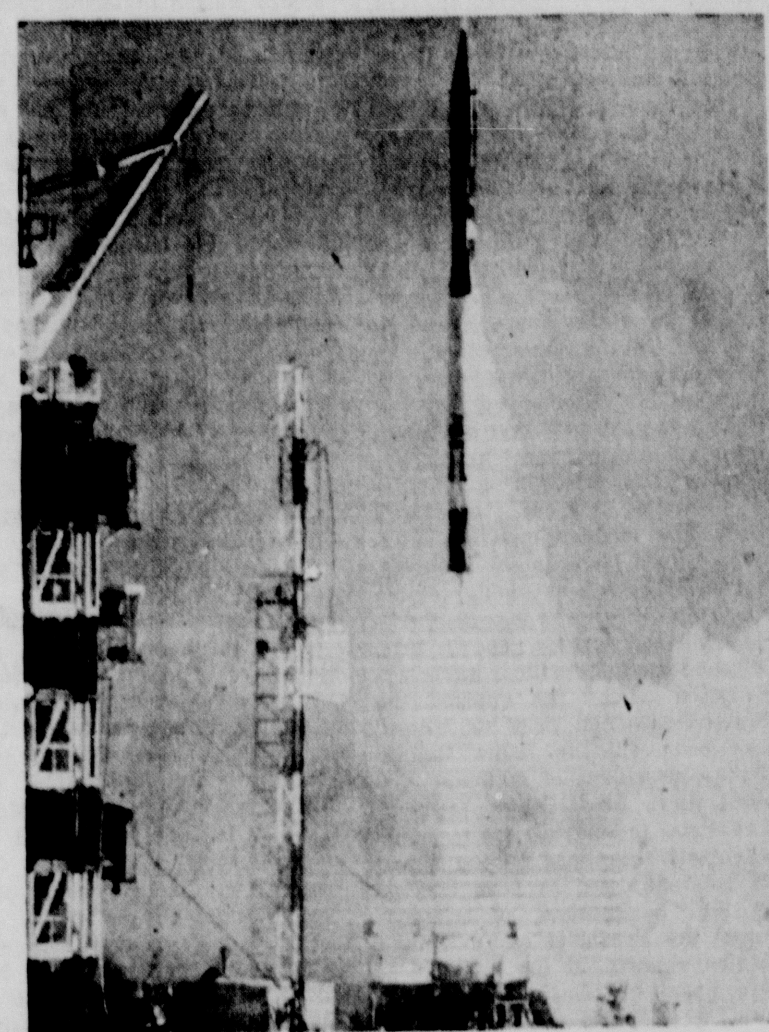

The Harrisburg Kiwanis club will visit the Vienna club Thursday evening, instead of making the trip to Cairo tonight, it was announced today by Robert Rushing, president of the club.

The club had planned on taking the traveling gavel to Cairo tonight, but in a switch in plans decided instead to take the gavel to the Vienna meeting Thursday night.

The members will travel by bus and are asked to meet at the Masonic temple at 5 p. m. to make the trip in a group.

3 Inches of Snow

Three inches of snow fell the past two days, Harrison Kibler reported. The actual precipitation was .17 inch.

Foreign Policy Talk By Ike April 17

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will deliver a foreign policy speech here April 17 before a meeting of U. S. and foreign newspaper editors, the White House announced Monday.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President would make a 30-minute speech before a joint lunch meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the International Press Institute. He said he understood about 80 European and Asian editors would be present.

Deny Secret Auto Pricing

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry, faced with a Senate bill requiring factory pricing of each car, denied today from all sides that its prices are secret.

Spokesmen for each of the companies pointed out factory recommended list prices, minus freight and handling charges to various parts of the country, are announced at the beginning of each model run.

They said these prices are available in several weekly auto publications and consumer magazines, although conceding these publications do not have large public circulations.

The spokesmen also pointed out reductions in freight and handling charges in various parts of the country in recent years and that these shipping "reforms" were widely publicized.

The Senate bill to require the manufacturer to label each car with a price, shipping charges, assembly point and receiving dealer was sponsored by Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney.

Monroney said the buyer can find out everything about the car from the dealer "except the price."

Has Confidence Of Higher Level Of Prosperity

Pledges Action In Speech to 1,700 Republican Women

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower promised today to take any "desirable and necessary action"—including cutting taxes—to help the nation make a "healthy economic recovery."

The "administration is doing and will do everything that it can constructively do to bring about a resurgence of employment and production," the President said. He said he is "fully dedicated" to attainment of such a goal.

And, he said, his confidence in the ability of the American people to come out of the recession and attain a higher level of prosperity "is as strong as my belief in the greatness and destiny of our beloved country."

"This administration will continue to undertake, by executive action or proposal to the Congress, any measure—including tax reduction with congressional leaders, such action should prove desirable and necessary—that will assist healthy economic recovery," the President said.

The President pledged the action in a speech to 1,700 Republican women attending the sixth annual GOP Women's Conference.

He spoke shortly after discussing the economic situation for two hours and 20 minutes with Republican congressional leaders.

Senate GOP Leader William F. Knowland predicted after the White House meeting that it would be at least two months before the administration makes a decision on cutting taxes.

Knowland flatly disputed a statement by Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.) that specific plans—including cutting withholding taxes in half—were discussed at the White House meeting.

The President cited four "sound and timely actions the government already has taken to halt the recession and restore prosperity. He listed:

—Easing of credit by the Federal Reserve.

—"Numerous" administration

The Impact of FDR

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

Many Americans will be amazed to realize that a generation has passed since Franklin D. Roosevelt became president in the depths of the Great Depression and launched the nation into the hectic era of the New Deal.

As historians measure time, 25 years is, of course, not very long.
But already some of them have dared to struggle through the mountainous record of the Roosevelt period in search of patterns of truth.

These histories and biographies cannot be the definitive ones. Too many parts of the story are still to be unfolded in the private papers of men still living. Yet these preliminary insights make a useful background for what is to come.

The New Deal was really a two-phase affair which lasted about six years, roughly half of Mr. Roosevelt's tenure in office.

One phase concerned itself with recovery from the depression. It included the famous National Recovery Administration, under which industries adopted codes of performance designed to stimulate fuller economic activity. Unemployment relief, easy credit to businessmen, farmers, homeowners and others, and a broad public works program were other features.

If the volume of unemployed be taken as an index of recovery, then this part of the New Deal was never wholly successful. For in 1939, on the eve of World War II and our defense program, we still had 10 million unemployed, as against a peak of 16 million in the worst of the depression.

The other phase of the New Deal focused on long range social legislation—social security, unemployment compensation, protection of citizens' bank deposits, aids to housing, permanent credit and mortgage organizations, and the like.

American businessmen reserved their stiffest opposition for these elements of FDR's program. Yet most of them weathered the assault, and today are largely accepted by both major parties as an enduring part of the nation's economic and social system.

Congress swung sharply toward conservatism after the 1938 elections. The barriers proved insurmountable to Mr. Roosevelt. At that point the New Deal as an expanding and developing program came to an abrupt final halt.

Some say the social changes it produced were long overdue. Some have argued that industry might have kept federal hands off many fields had it alertly assumed burdens Washington took on in that era.

Whatever the fact, the New Deal has a collection of welfare measures lives on. Historic generations from now will decide whether Franklin D. Roosevelt's stature as its architect was or was not greatly lessened by the fact that he could not at the same time construct a full economic recovery.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Col.
Gordon Moore has had phenomenal business success; his career isn't harmed by attending exclusive White House dinners; he acquires racing stable and Virginia estate.

WASHINGTON — In a town which highlighted the dog troubles of Elliott Roosevelt, the marital troubles of Jimmy Roosevelt, and the Trujillo troubles of Franklin Roosevelt Jr., it's nothing short of a public relations miracle that for five years little has been said about the operations of another relative of another president—Col.
Gordon Moore. Yesterday, Col.
Moore, the President's brother-in-law, came before the Harris Investigating committee.

This writer, who was the first to report that FDR Jr. was working for Dictator Trujillo and who aroused considerable White House wrath for reporting on the friends of Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, believes that no presidential friend or relative who uses the great prestige of the White House should be immune from public scrutiny.

No president, of course, can pick the man his sister-in-law marries.
But he can see to it that his brother-in-law does not use White House dinners and telecasts to further his private business, especially when that business involves influence before government agencies.

Col. Moore is a charming, likable ex-Army officer who was discharged from the service Sept. 7, 1951, whose economic fortunes have skyrocketed since he entered the White House and since he, Moore, has been able to invite George Baker, president of National Airlines, to a presidential stag dinner Feb. 1, 1954; to invite other clients to receptions for the Queen of England; and be seen himself in the background of telecasts when the President of the United States reports to the nation. It also hasn't hurt business when Col.
and Mrs. Moore were among the very limited number of guests invited to the most exclusive dinner given at the White House in five years—that for the Queen of England.

Col. Moore's business has zoomed to such extent that he not only occupies a nice house opposite Ambassador Joe Davies' palatial estate near the Washington Cathedral, but he also has a week-end estate, "Holiday Farm," and racing stable in the fox-hunting section of northern Virginia.

Here are some of the interesting business operations involving Col.
Moore:

The Dominican Dictator—Moore
has been part owner of a Dominican shipyard, financed by Trui-jillo, with George W. Gibbs Jr., and John W. Cross, vice presidents of National Airlines, as executives.
Gibbs was later fired by Trujillo and Col. Moore has now sold his stock.

Col. Moore has continued on intimate terms with the dictator of the Caribbean for some time, has made many trips to Trujillo City, and two years ago negotiated a complicated deal for the importation of 7,000 tons of "green sugar" into the U.S. as hog feed. This classification meant that he paid a duty of 15 cents per cwt. instead of 66.5 cents; also that the sugar was not charged against the Dominican quota.

Later when the U. S. Customs Bureau reversed itself and charged 66.5 cents on Moore's shipment, Sen. Jack Kennedy of Massachusetts introduced a bill (from which he later withdrew) which would have given the colonel's sugar special treatment.

The fact that the President's brother-in-law has been on close terms with the Dominican dictator has not been lost on other Latin American countries where the United States has been trying to encourage democratic governments.

Loans from American Security and Trust—Col. Moore enjoys a relation with Bob Baker, executive vice president of this bank, which would make other businessmen green with envy. He is able to walk in and borrow large sums with almost no collateral; once borrowed $50,000 for the Air Coach Transit Association on no real security other than office furniture.

Moore runs a factoring business whereby he borrows money from Banker's bank, then loans it to small nonskilled airlines which have to wait to collect from the slow-paying government. For this factoring service he charges 1 per cent.

Capital Transit Co.—Col. Moore introduced his friend and former employer, O. Roy Chalk, to Baker of American Security and Trust when Chalk was trying to buy the streetcar and bus lines which serve the nation's capital. Offer after offer had been made to buy Capital Transit, of which Baker was a director. Some of these were better than Chalk's. But his was finally accepted. Col. Moore acknowledged to this column that he had helped put the deal across "in a small way."

Trans Caribbean Airways—Shortly before Ike was nominated, Roy Chalk gave Moore a job at $6,500
a year in charge of public relations for the Air Transport Association, later made him vice president of Trans Caribbean Airways.

No longer vice president, Moore has branched out far beyond this early job; and so has Trans Caribbean. On Jan. 15, it became the first nonskilled airline in the history of the U.S.A. to get a regularly scheduled route — from New York to Puerto Rico. It got this route despite the formal opposition of the Puerto Rican government, which filed a brief favoring Capital Airlines.

U. S. Air Lines—In the fall of 1952, U. S. Air Lines, a nonskilled, faced bankruptcy. Its bank account was overdrawn, it had only one DC-3 that could get off the ground, its insurance had been canceled, the CAB had canceled permission to fly military passengers and was threatening to revoke its certificate altogether.

Suddenly the President's brother-in-law managed to put $25,000 into the line and became an executive.
In one short week, stock in U. S.
Air Lines shot from 12 1/2 cents up to 36 cents.

This is indicative of how things have boomed for the affable Army officer since those dark financial days in 1952 just before Ike's election.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like

"Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — discovery of a world-famous research institute.
This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

I have blotted out as a thick cloud thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins; return unto me, for I have redeemed thee. Isaiah 44:22.

Nothing, then, stands between us and the Father. Even the sorriest prodigal may return and exchange his rags for a spotless garment and take his place in his Father's house.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTETEX, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, plates hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTETEX at any drug counter.

SYRACUSE, N. The burglars, who found the safe empty, should have looked at the front of the safe door on which was written the combination.

Like a Housewife Hates Dust on the Furniture

Phillips 66 Dealers take a lot of pride in being good housekeepers. They have a housewife's hatred of untidiness. They keep their stations clean, including those all-important rest rooms.

They'll go all out to keep your car clean, too. "Whiskbrooming" the interior of your car is one of those extra little services your Phillips 66 Dealer is glad to perform. And he'll clean the windows for you... all the way around.

This obsession with cleanliness is part and parcel of our policy of "Hospitality on the Highway." You benefit from it at any station which displays the orange and black Phillips 66 Shield.

Highway Division to Conduct Training Course for 25 High School Graduates

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Gov. Stratton announced today the state Highway Division will conduct a special training course for 150 high school graduates who then will be offered jobs as engineering technicians in the state road program. Application blanks for the training course will be available at all high schools in the state and at district highway division offices, Stratton said. The course will be conducted June 15-Aug. 30 at the University of Illinois at Urbana and at the U. of I. branch at Navy Pier in Chicago.

Public Works Director Edwin A. Rosenstone said the expanded state road program has created a need for large number of engineering technicians to perform routine, sub-professional engineering assignments.

There is a shortage of engineers and the technicians relieve regular engineers from routine assignments, he said.

Stratton said the special course is intended primarily for high school graduates between 17 and 25 who have completed courses in algebra and plane geometry and do not plan because of financial problems to attend college within the next year or so.

Selection of persons to attend the course will be made on the basis of high school scholastic records, aptitude examinations and personal interviews.

The technicians will be employed at a starting salary of $250 a month effective with the start of the course June 15 and will be assigned to the various highway districts after the course.

Twenty-five of the technicians will be trained at the Navy Pier and assigned to the Cook County highway district.

The remaining 125 will be trained at Urbana and assigned to downstate highway districts. The downstate offices and number of technicians to be assigned to each are:

Elgin 21; Dixon 12; Ottawa 10; Peoria 10; Paris 20; Springfield 12; Effingham 10; East St. Louis 15; and Carbondale 15.

LABOR ENDORSES PAUL POWELL

ILLINOIS STATE FEDERATION of LABOR

REUBEN G. SODERSTROM, President
SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS

Springfield, Ill., March 5, 1958

To the Union Membership
59th Representative District

Greetings:

State Representative Paul Powell, of Vienna, Ill., is confronted with a contest for nomination and re-election. There are three candidates in the race on the Democratic ticket and two of them are to be nominated on April 8.

Because of the distinguished service Representative Powell has rendered, both as an ordinary member and also as an officer and Speaker of the House of Representatives, many voters are likely to get the notion he is "safe." There is nothing certain about elections. A popular and distinguished candidate can be defeated by that "safe" humbug. Paul Powell needs the vote and support of every trade unionist in his representative district.

He has voted for labor legislation consistently and has the best record of any candidate in his district. He has sponsored old age pensions and minimum wage proposals. While not holding any official position in the House of Representatives at the moment, still he is recognized as the outstanding leader on both sides of the aisle. His defeat would be a tragic loss to the working people of not only his representative district but the entire State of Illinois.

It is my hope that all labor unionists, their wives and eligible family members, will go to the polls on primary day, April 8 and vote for Paul Powell. His unbroken record on the side of labor and humanity entitles him to be nominated by an increased majority. I am glad to recommend it.

In all sincerity

Charges Segregationist Groups Plan New Bombings in South

By United Press
A Jewish lay leader says he has evidence that segregationist groups are planning a South-wide series of bombings such as those that shook Jewish centers Sunday at Nashville, Tenn., and Miami.

Nate Perlmuter, executive director of the Anti-Defamation League at Miami, said "We are in possession of highly restricted evidence, shared by the FBI, which is working on the cases in other cities as well as here."

There was a possible new bombing threat at a Miami synagogue Monday.

Other developments:
—Authorities in Miami and Nashville, spurred on by an angry public and offers of aid in the form of rewards for information, intensified efforts to track down those connected with the bombings.

Firm Makes $4,000 Mistake on Illinois Motorcycle Plates

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The firm that manufactures Illinois' vehicle license plates made a $4,000 mistake on this year's motorcycle plates, the secretary of state's office has disclosed.

The firm, Hemp and Co., Macomb, made the 4958 motorcycle plates too large and is replacing them at a cost of $4,000 to be borne by the company.

Last year the same firm had to replace a large number of automobile license plates because the paint peeled from them.

The secretary's office said the company made the motorcycle plates 4 1/2 inches by 10 inches, which meant they extended inches beyond the width of a motorcycle.

The specifications had called for the plates to be 4 1/4 inches by 7 1/4 inches numbering up to 10,000, and 4 1/4 by 8 3/4 inches numbering from 10,000 to 25,000.

There are 25,000 plates to be replaced at a unit cost of 15 1/2 cents.

The secretary's office said the error resulted from a misunderstanding on the part of the company.

The large plates were sent out to motorcycle owners so they would have them for the Feb. 15 deadline. But now motorcycle owners are receiving the smaller plates and are asked to return the too-large ones.

ple has brought suit in federal court challenging Mississippi's voting laws and sections of the state constitution. It was the NAACP's first civil action against state's segregation laws.

—The Mississippi Senate passed and sent to the House a bill that would allow use of public tax money by the segregationist white citizens councils or by any organization "dedicated to preservation of constitutional government."

—Five members of a splinter Ku Klux Klan group went on trial at Charlotte, N. C., on charges arising from an abortive plan to blow up a Negro school.

—Perry L. Thompson, a Negro radio announcer, withdrew from the Alabama lieutenant governor's race — but said he "might run for governor" in 1962. He dropped his campaign, he said, "because I just don't have time to complete it."

—A Florida legislative committee filed contempt proceedings against 15 Miami residents accused of failing to cooperate in a probe of NAACP and Communist activities in the state.

Appeal for Review Refused

—The U. S. Supreme Court refused to examine the appeal of one white and two Negro students convicted of violating a new bus seating ordinance in Tallahassee, Fla. The three had been sentenced to 60 days in jail and fined $500 each for violating the law, which authorizes bus drivers to assign seats to their passengers.

Slayer Granted Stay of Execution

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois Supreme Court today granted a stay of execution to May 16 for Canton taxicab driver Lloyd Miller Jr., who was scheduled to die in the electric chair April 11 for the rape-slaying of Janice May, 8, of Canton.

The Supreme Court granted the stay so that Miller may appeal his conviction to the U. S. Supreme Court. His attorneys had filed a motion Monday asking for the stay. Miller, who is in death row at Joliet State Prison, was found guilty of murdering the little girl in November, 1955.

Ask Good Road Through Garden of Gods Area

State Geological Survey, Urbana, told of earth-science field trips the Survey sponsors and said there would be one in the Rosiclare area April 12. He said that normally these tours start from the high school for the area at 9 a. m. and that everybody seriously interested in such a tour is invited to go. People should wear old clothing and should provide their own lunches and transportation, he stated.

Last spring, he said there were as many as 350 on a trip.

Outdoor Education Program

Speaker last night was Dr. Loren Taylor of SIU, who told of trends to increased leisure because of shorter work weeks and retirements with a longer life expectancy, and how different parts of the nation are fighting to get the tourist dollar which results from more leisure time.

He also spoke of outdoor education, in which 36 states are now engaged and of the outdoor education program at Little Grassy Lake.

The goal, he stated, is that eventually every sixth grader in the 31 counties of southern Illinois will be able to spend one week at Little Grassy camp.

President Ray Mittendorf of Metropolis presided at the meeting. During the meal there was organ music played by Mrs. Helen Asbel and there was a flapper pantomime to "I Love My Baby" by Terri Crawford of Marion.

Preceding Mr. Taylor's talk there was a color film "Midwest Holiday," which showed scenic spots of the Midwest.

Pleads Innocent

R. W. Davis of Harrisburg yesterday pleaded innocent to a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor when arraigned in county court and his bond was set at $1,000. The information was signed by State Trooper Everett Estes.

Invades Jail with Butcher Knife

JOHNSTON CITY, Ill. (AP)—They threw the book at Audie Rains Jr., 27, for breaking into jail.

He gallantly tried Monday night to rescue a woman from a cold lonely cell, waving a butcher knife as a sword.

He put the point of the weapon against Night Police Chief Oscar Sine and demanded the release of Mrs. Mildred Stone, 35, Benton.

Sine drew his pistol, fired a shot at Rains' feet and then hit him on the head with the butt of the gun. Down he went.

But the shot alerted Assistant Fire Chief John Elko Jr. He grabbed a submachine gun and sounded a radio alert.

Audie's mother and brother arrived at the jail shortly thereafter.

Police Chief Luther Wiseman said Elko warned the brother, Jack, not to go any further. He didn't, but he signed a complaint later against Elko for pointing a submachine gun at him.

They took Audie Rains to Williamson County Jail at Marion when things quieted down. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm, intoxication, destruction of property, and, since it seemed to cover both trying to get in as well as out, attempted jailbreak.

Mrs. Stone?

Her husband came down and paid a $200 fine on her reckless driving charge and she was released.

House Refuses to Accept Senate Postal Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House refused today to accept the Senate-approved plan to charge 5 cents for mailing out-of-town letters.

Instead, it sent the postage rate bill to a conference committee to iron out differences between Senate and House versions.

The actions were taken on a routine motion by Chairman Tom Murray (D-Tenn.) to disagree with Senate changes in the original House bill. No objections were raised.

The House bill, passed last year, called for a 4-cent rate on both local and out-of-town letters and other postage rate increases to bring in a total of 527 million dollars annually.

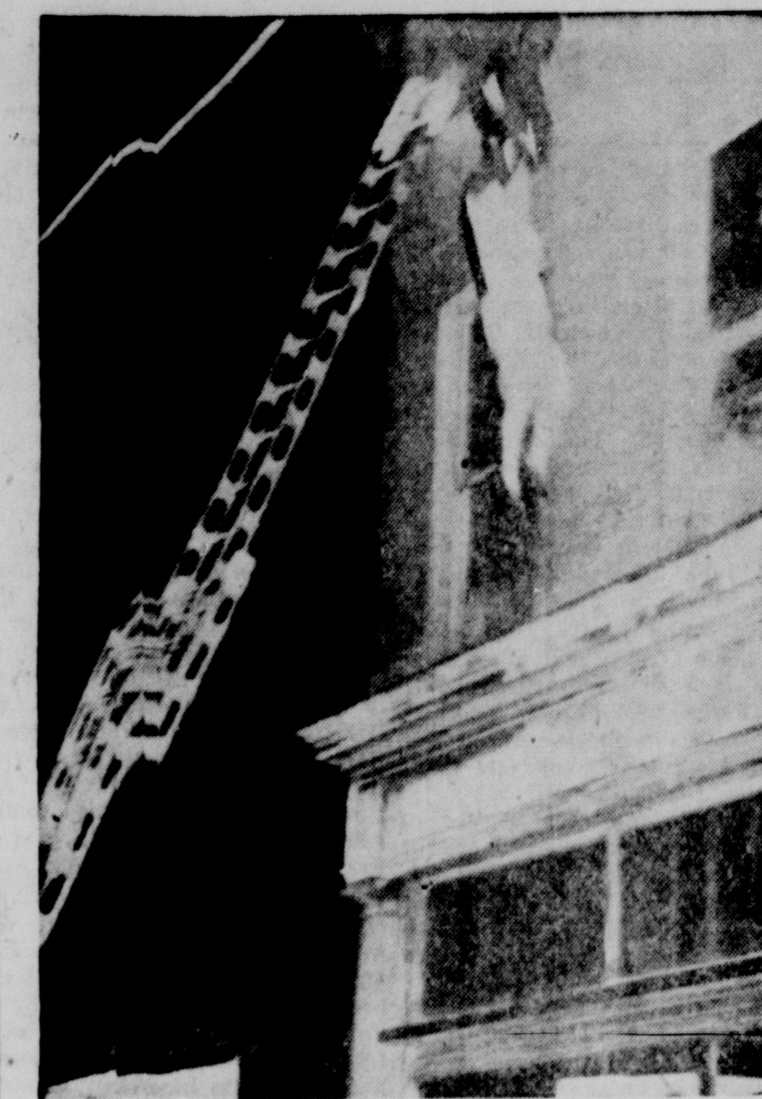

The Senate last month hiked the charge for out-of-town letters to 5 cents and tacked on a 322-million-dollar-a-year pay raise for the nation's 519,000 post-office workers.

Postage increases under the Senate version would amount to 732 million dollars annually.

Run by Fire Department

The fire department made a run to the Salvation Army residence at 711 West Poplar street during the noon hour yesterday. A stoker motor had burned up and there was smoke.

The chopped-off look of the ocean sunfish has given it the nickname of "headfish" since it appears to have no body at all.

steps to stimulate home building

—His plan, to be announced within the next few days, for a temporary extension of the period for payment of unemployment compensation benefits to idle workers.

—Speed-up in "useful and needed" public works construction, such as post offices, water resources and reclamation projects, and highways.

Denounces Farm Bill

But he reiterated his strong opposition to "make-work . . . slow-moving" public works projects. Such an approach, he said, "tends to supplant rather than supplement private activity." He said it also dulls private initiative, builds up a huge bureaucracy and "threatens to turn a temporary recession into a long-term economic headache."

"The hardships to individuals and their families of a temporary downturn in employment are bad enough," he said.

"But this administration is not going to be panicked by alarmists into activities that would actually make those hardships not temporary but chronic."

The President denounced a bill approved by the Senate last week that would freeze farm price supports. He charged it was "a 180 degree turn in the wrong direction."

And that direction, he added, "can only lead to chronic controls and perpetual troubles for the farmer."

Meanwhile, Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson today outlined alternative administration plans for a possible tax cut, including cutting the withholding tax in half, a Republican senator said after a White House meeting.

Anderson discussed the plans for 30 minutes at the weekly meeting of President Eisenhower with GOP congressional leaders. Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.), senior GOP member of the Senate Finance Committee, told reporters that "no conclusion" was reached on when and if to put any of the plans into effect.

The senator said Anderson discussed various alternatives, including a reduction of excise and business income taxes.

Martin said another alternative was to reduce personal income taxes in the high brackets, along with lowering business income taxes, to encourage capital investment and long range growth of business.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

John Romonosky

John Romonosky has returned to professional baseball after a year's absence.

Saturday the Harrisburg native reported to the Charlotte, N. C., spring training camp near Jacksonville, Fla. Charlotte, a Washington Senator farm club, is a member of the 55-year-old Class A South Atlantic league.

John, a fire-balling right-hander, gained considerable attention during a pitching career with the Harrisburg Township high school baseball team and later with the Harrisburg "town" team. He was looked over by scouts representing several major league clubs and was first offered a contract by Brooklyn.

After a year with the Brooklyn farm system John became the property of the St. Louis Cardinals and worked his way through the various league classifications to the very top.

Along the way he earned the "Rookie of the Year" award with Fresno of the California State League, a Class C loop.

During the summer of 1953 he was assigned to Columbus in the Class AAA American Association where he had a 4-1 record before being called to his parent Cardinal club Sept. 1.

The peak of John's career came a few days later in Milwaukee when he hooked up in a 3-3 game, called at the end of eight innings due to darkness.

He failed to stay with the Cards the following year, but remained in the farm system until 1957. He signed with Syracuse, but was released May 1.

John's mother said today he was offered a contract by both the Charlotte club and also with San Antonio of the Class AA Texas league. He picked Charlotte as he figured the opportunities in the Washington farm system were better.

John, who will be 29 years old in July, played semi-pro ball in the Columbus, Ohio area last year and worked in the shipping department of a plastics manufacturing concern.

The South Atlantic league, known as the Sally, is a six-club circuit. One of baseball's big gest names—Bill Terry—is the owner of one of the teams. Terry, former New York Giant great, purchased the Jacksonville, Fla., team last month. He served as president of the Sally for a long time.

The University of Idaho basketball team, coached by Harlan Hodges, has just concluded its most successful season in year. Hodges, who formerly coached at the Carrier Mills and West Frankfort high schools and headed the basketball program at Murray, Ky., college for years, brought his team in fourth in the nine-team Pacific Coast conference.

Idaho's Gary Simmons, 5-11 was the league's leading scorer with 346 points and averaged 21.6. Whaylon Coleman and John Liveious, both Kentucky products, had outstanding records and will be back next season.

Hodges' charges had the best offensive record in the league, averaging 69.7; had the best field percentage, .388, and set a new conference mark from the foul line with 16 out of 17 against Stanford. They accomplished the unique feat of beating every other team in the league at least once and won from Washington State twice.

"We had a lot of hustle," said Coach Hodges, "and did very well despite the lack of particular height."

Hutchinson Says Cardinals Can 'Go All the Way'

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Freddie Hutchinson, who brought in his St. Louis Cardinals a surprising second last year, thinks they can "go all the way" this year.

"We have the power, and I think we have the pitching," Hutchinson said. "The only question in my mind is our defense—in the outfield."

In addition to that possible weakness, he also admitted that he would like a veteran third-string catcher.

"A guy who can go in there in the late innings to settle down my kid pitchers," Hutchinson explained. He had Walker Cooper for that chore last year, but Cooper decided to end his active playing days.

Set Except for Pitching

Except for pitching, the Cardinals, pending deals, are all set. They'll come up with a revised infield, but with the same four players they had last year. Al Dark has been shifted to third base and the younger and faster Eddie Kasko has been moved from third to shortstop.

At first will be Stan Musial, who won the National League batting championship for the seventh time last season, with Don Blasingame at second base.

He's sure that Musial will supply the power he needs along with his starting outfield trio of Del Ennis in left, Ken Boyer in center and Wally Moon in left.

The question in Hutchinson's mind is whether that outfield will let in more runs than they bat in. Smith for Outfield Duty

The Cardinals manager will keep the light-hitting Bobby Gene Smith around for outfield utility duty along with veteran Irv Noren. He also hopes that Gene Green, a rookie up from Rochester where he hit .299 last season, will make the grade. Green can catch. The 19-year-old Curtis Flood can do the job in the field, but doesn't hit too well against curve balls and may be sent down for further seasoning.

Joe Cunningham, who can play either in the outfield or at first, will be kept as a utility man along with infielder Dick Schofield.

Hal Smith will be the No. 1 catcher with Hobie Landrith behind him. The "Big Four" pitching start-

Yanks Clobber Braves, 15-8, In 17-Hit Attack

By United Press
Casey Stengel can stop scowling today because his New York Yankees once again are looking like champions.

Stengel was mighty unhappy last week after his team dropped five of its first six exhibition games. But today they're riding a four-game winning streak, including two straight wins over the world champion Milwaukee Braves.

The Yankees staged their best show of the spring Monday when they clobbered the Braves 15-8, with a 17-hit attack on four pitchers. They got off badly when Bob Turley was raked for five runs in the first inning but got fine pitching over the last seven frames from Tom Sturdivant and Johnny James.

Mickey Mantle hit his first homer of the spring and also tripled. Andy Carey and Hank Bauer homered and Norm Siebern had four hits in five tries.

Frank Robinson smashed two homers and knocked in six runs as the Cincinnati Redlegs whipped the Washington Senators, 9-6, for their fifth win in 10 games.

The Philadelphia Phillies scored a 6-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cleveland Indians beat the San Francisco Giants, 9-6, for the first time this spring.

Frank Thomas banged out two homers but they weren't nearly enough as the Chicago White Sox took advantage of five Pittsburgh errors to beat the Pirates, 7-4.

Robertson Is Named Basketball Player of Year

NEW YORK — Oscar Robertson, the University of Cincinnati's 19-year-old whiz kid, today became the first sophomore ever to be chosen Basketball Player of the Year in the annual United Press poll.

In a vote of 251 sports writers and sportscasters, Robertson, the leading scorer in major college ranks, received 123 votes as the best player in the business this season.

Elgin Baylor of Seattle was runner-up with 55 votes, followed by Dave Gambee of Oregon State with 12, Guy Rodgers of Temple with 10, Don Hennon of Pittsburgh with 8 and Bailey Howell of Mississippi State with 5. Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas and Pete Brennan of North Carolina each had four votes.

ers for the Cardinals will be Larry Jackson who had a 15-9 record last season; Sam (Toothpick) Jones (12-9); Lindy McDaniel, one of the famous bonus pitching brothers with a mark of 15-9, and Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who in his first year out of service won eight games while losing 10 last season.

Herrin-West Frankfort Tilt Tonight Tops First Round of State Tourney

By United Press

The battle for the 1958 state high school basketball championship resumes at eight sites tonight, with defending titleholder Herrin and the West Frankfort Red Birds matched in the feature game at West Frankfort.

Once-beaten Rock Falls, a leading contender for the coveted state crown, collides at Moline with the Fulton Steamers who pulled off an upset in downing Moline in the sectionals.

But the Herrin-West Frankfort game rates as the top attraction tonight since it matches two clubs that have been rated among the top 15 in the state all season. Herrin was ranked first and West Frankfort fourth in the final United Press poll of the regular season.

The two teams have met three times previously this season and Herrin holds a 2-1 edge.

Herrin Boasts 1957 Stars

West Frankfort, with a 27-3 record, beat Herrin by 1 point early in the season, but the Tigers, now 28-3, came back to defeat the Red Birds by 3 points and 13 points in subsequent games.

Herrin is led by three returning regulars from its 1957 championship team, Willie Williams, Dick Box and Jim Gualdoni. West Frankfort's attack is built around high-scoring forward Francis Florian and 6-5 center Vlado Zavich.

Rock Falls takes a sparkling 30-1 record into the fray at Moline, while Fulton, which boasts a strong defense, is 25-2 for the season.

Key man for the Rockets is play-making guard Gary Kolb, while Mike Woods and Larry Prins are the big men for Fulton.

Marshall vs Elgin

The Ottawa Pirates, third-place winner in the state last year, tangle with the Peoria Spalding Irish at Peoria. Ottawa, with four regulars back from last season including hot-shot guard Francis Clements, got off to a disappointing start this year, but came back to post a 22-9 record.

The Irish, led by Dave McGann and Mike Haley, compiled a 24-5 record for the season despite a lack of height.

At Evanston, Chicago Marshall, the only perfect record team still in the tourney at 26-0, runs into Elgin, like Ottawa and Herrin a repeater from last year's Sweet Sixteen. Elgin, paced by Jack Plederer, is 19-7 for the season.

George Wilson is one of the Marshall Commandos' top scorers.

The fourth member of last year's Sweet Sixteen which is back again this season, Springfield, takes on Quincy at Springfield. The host Senators, who won the Big 12 Conference championship on their way to a 23-8 record, build their attack around junior 6-7 center Tom Cole.

Quincy's Blue Devils will match the Springfield height with 6-7 Bumpy Nixon who is only a sophomore.

Aurora West vs Bradley

Jerseyville, which bumped off highly regarded Edwardsville in the sectionals, carries a 27-3 record into the quarter-finals against Highland at Salem. Bill Smith, an outshooting wizard who poured in 33 points against Edwardsville, leads the Panther offense.

At Decatur, Arcola with a 27-2 record, tackles Danville Schlarmann, 17-11 for the season. The Arcola Purple Riders are led by high scoring captain Ed Harshbarger. Schlarmann is a young team with guard Jerry Kuemmerle the only senior starter.

At Aurora it is Aurora West, 17-8, against the Bradley Boiler-makers, 26-6. Bradley has height in 6-6 sophomore Steve Crews and center Harold Emme and Don Roberts, both 6-5.

Aurora West is paced by 5-10 junior guard Bill Small, the Big Eight Conference scoring champion.

Hatfield, Mass. is the birth place of three noted educators. They are Jonathan Dickinson, first president of the school that is now Princeton University; Sophia Smith, founder of Smith College; and Ephraim Williams, founder of Williams College.

LEAD WITH YOUR LEFT

by ED LACY

THE STORY: Detective David Wintino digs into the record of Ed Owens, a retired policeman, who was killed while delivering bonds. He learned that Owens and his partner Al Wales solved a gangster killing during Prohibition days.

IV
I took the subway over to the precinct house, paying my fare. Seems dumb to me to advertise every day that you're a detective I waded into the detective room a few minutes before eight. Danny Hays was already there, breezing with a sleepy-looking fat slob named Ace who has a terrific memory for faces. I picked up the daily report sheet, read the arrests. There wasn't anything of interest except they had collared a clown named Hanson up on Washington Heights trying to pass a stiff check in a drugstore. Seems Hanson had bounced a check in the same store a few months ago. Most crooks are dumb.

I said hello to Danny as I put the report sheet down. "How about this paperhanger Hanson, think he could be the phony doctor dropping rubber around here?" He was working a drugstore."

"We're going to check," Danny said.

Ace waved a heavy hand at me and yawned. "Now I can go home and sleep in peace, the younger generation has things in hand. Will you look at that outfit."

"Cut the wisecracks, Ace. An ex-cop's been killed."

Ace stood up, like a tent coming erect, and favored me with a belch. "Got special news for you, kid. The cemeteries are full of ex-cops. When our number comes up we go with the wagon too. There's nothing new on Owens, not a lead—one of those great big blank walls."

"Lab come up with anything?" "Nothing except he was killed with a 38." Ace stretched and for some reason I suddenly thought of Mary.

"Ace, you married?"

He turned to stare at me, heavy arms still in mid-air, a dopey look on his fat face. "Sure I'm married. Now what brought that brainstorm on?"

"Nothing. Just... uh... thinking about cops' wives. Like this Owens' wife. What did she have to say?"

Ace gave me a fat grin. "Being as I'm just a detective on the night tour Captain Lampkin hasn't time to go over all the details with me."

"Everybody treats this a big yak. We ought to spend a lot of time with Mrs. Owens, and with Wales, and dig into their past arrests. Plenty of work to do," I said.

"There certainly is, Wintino, and you can start by getting me a buttered roll and a container of coffee—light. Too tired to eat this morning," a voice said behind me.

I turned and Lieutenant Reed was standing in the doorway kind of stooped as though afraid of bumping his bald dome. He had tired circles under his eyes and needed a shave. I said, "Certainly, Lieutenant," and took the two bits he held out.

I didn't like the idea of Reed using me as coffee boy. And it was about time he learned coffee and a buttered roll was 32 cents.

I returned to find a tall, well-set-up guy, about 37, sitting with Reed. The guy had a brown gabardine suit that had to be custom-made the way it fitted like a grape skin.

As I put the bag on the desk Reed said, "This is Detective Austin from Homicide. You've met Detective Hayes; this is his partner, Detective Wintino. They were the first of my squad to reach Owens."

Austin nodded at me and said "You must have shrunk since you took the physical. Never figure you for five eight." He had a booming clear voice.

"I was wearing elevator shoes at the time. They send you up here to check my height?"

Austin winked at Reed.

"Captain Lampkin wants you to have a talk with Mrs. Owens. That's about the only angle we haven't covered thoroughly. I suggest you go over to her flat now. I'm sending Hayes downtown to the line-up to look over a rubber check artist we're interested in, so take Wintino with you." Reed glanced at the wall clock. "Unless she gives you something, he back here around 10."

...
I got a car and drove Austin up to the Bronx. I asked him "Have you seen Owens' old partner, Al Wales?"

"No, but I hear he looks like a creep."

"Seems they made an important collar back in 1930. Got a guy who killed a hot-shot goon named Boots Brenner. Ever hear of Brenner?"

Austin nodded as he took out a pack of butts.

"I remember reading about Brenner someplace. Punk who wanted to be a second Vince Coll tougher than tough stuff. Want a smoke?"

"I don't smoke. Thanks."

"You must have made a fortune in the Army."

"I did my time after the war. What about this Boots Brenner?" I asked, a little steamed.

"Like I told you, a punk. Started to cut into the big pie but got himself killed before the big boys took much notice of him. What's he got to do with Owens?"

"I don't know, yet. I'd like to have another talk with Wales. Of course the guy they rapped for killing Boots sat in the chair but I have a feeling we ought to dig deeper into their arrest record." I said turning into 145th Street, and stopping for a light. (To Be Continued)

Don't Just "Buy Pig Feed"
This Year—PLAN A PROFESSIONAL PORK PROGRAM
With These STALEY Feeds

Pork production has gone far beyond the mere routine of "feeding some pigs." Now STALEY has made hog-raising a full-scale professional-quality operation.

This is not only true for the specialized hog farmer. Farmers who make hogs just one part of a general farming program can use the STALEY-proved professional feeds and methods to insure increased hog revenue.

These Feeding Plans Work For Any Size Operator!

Whether you have a sow colony with several sows on a "mass-production" multiple farrowing plan, or raise only a few litters of pigs a year, these STALEY feeds can help you:

1. Market more pigs per litter.
2. Get extra early pounds of gain.
3. Finish hogs faster.
4. Produce the meatier-type hogs that get you better prices.
5. Cut feed consumption per pound of gain.

Give Pigs a PROFESSIONAL Start with STALEY pig kisses

This professionally proved combination of pre-starter and starter feed is the key to raising pigs like broilers. Staley Professional Pig Kisses is the pepsin-enzymated feed, sugar-coated for appetite appeal and usable energy. It gives even week-old pigs 4-week-old ability to digest solid feed—turn sow's milk and feed, too, into extra pounds in the first few weeks. Use only 10 pounds per pig to carry them up to about 4 weeks of age!

Want to MANAGE Professionally As Well As FEED Professionally?

Get these FREE Staley Professional Hog Buildings plans. They show you how to adapt old buildings with a few dollars' worth of materials to have the most modern type of well-engineered "production line" for hogs. See your Staley dealer now for your copy of these plans—and arrange for your Staley PROFESSIONAL Hog Feeds.

Fastest Growth Yet to 60 Days with STALEY pig grower

Every mouthful of Staley Professional Pig Grower your pigs eat provides a completely new, more effective way to prevent worms and kill worm eggs! For now Staley Pig Grower is fortified with HYGROMYCIN—the new continuous worm-controlling antibiotic. Works by preventing worms from growing or reproducing. It's even better than a regular wormer feed; for worms get no chance to weaken pigs or rob them of feed.

At the same time the high nutritional levels of Staley Pig Grower keep pigs growing at top speed. Even without Hygromycin this formula has brought thousands of pigs to 8 weeks of age weighing 45, 50, even 60 pounds. It's even more effective now, with HYGROMYCIN.

Look Forward to Fastest Finish with STALEY pro-lass and Your Own Grain

It isn't too early now to think how you're going to finish your hogs for the most profitable market. Make the most of the early gains your pigs will pile on with your Staley PROFESSIONAL starter and grower feeds.

It's easy with Staley Pro-Lass, the finish feed that can market hogs at 190-200 pounds in as little as 4½ months. Pro-Lass is one feed you make a big profit on!—only 40 pounds of Pro-Lass, costing less than $2.25, can replace $5.00 worth of corn (even at on-the-farm prices). Used with corn or milo, that 40 pounds turns into 50 pounds of $17-to-$20 pork!
